This information must be completed by the applicant's parent or legal guardian: Northwest Catholic High School offers a mainstream college preparatory program with no Special Education or related services, and minimal support staff. To the extent possible, certain curricular or environmental accommodations may be arranged depending on the documented need for, and evidence of previous use of accommodations, and the student's level of cooperation. Therefore, to better serve the needs of our student population, it is necessary that we be aware of any exceptionality that might be a factor in the student's academic program. If you answer yes to any question below, please forward a copy of any psycho-educational evaluation (academic, behavioral, cognitive, or any other testing including IEPs, ICEPs and 504 plans). Students who receive extended time must submit paperwork prior to the entrance exam. Students who meet admissions requirements must complete an interview prior to a decision.
